19. All the Exchange Control copies (in original) of Bills of Entry shall be deposited by CHA directly with MMTC.
20. All deliveries shall be made in the presence of the Surveyors nominated by MMTC and CHA shall co-ordinate with the Surveyors for effecting the deliveries.
21. CHA shall maintain complete account of cargo discharges and containers and shall submit daily/weekly report to MMTC.
22. CHA shall maintain record of goods received in bulk, empty bags received vessel-wise and submit to MMTC as and when demanded.
23. CHA shall not have any right to create a charge, lien, sell, transfer, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber the stocks of the MMTC, under any circumstances.
24. CHA shall be responsible for any shortage, deterioration in quality and contamination of the product during handling of cargo from port or storage. If found short, it will be compensated by CHA on demand without prejudice to any other legal remedy.
25. It will be the responsibility of CHA to make all arrangements like procuring adequate labour and other necessary equipments required for bagging and standardization of bulk cargo.
26. In case of demurrage and/or extra wharfage due to non achievement of contracted rate of discharge with supplier/CP, bagging and standardization and movement of goods from port, the same shall be to the account of CHA in case of bulk cargo (work as per price bid at Annexure I C).
27. CHA shall obtain all permissions, licences / permits required from any Government and local bodies for storage of product in the warehouse.
28. CHA shall arrange at their cost all work connected with weighment, supervision of unloading and re-loading work, wherever required.

29. CHA shall arrange to pay directly all rates, duties, taxes, levies, excise and octroi – state and central – and any other charges and duties etc., payable on the product on behalf of MMTC.
30. CHA shall not assign or in any manner make over the said agency or this contract to any other firm/person.
31. MMTC reserves the right to appoint one or more CHA within the same territory and CHA shall not create any situation which may prevent MMTC from doing so.
32. MMTC reserves the right to terminate the agreement by giving 30 days notice without assigning any reason thereof. This will not however absolve CHA of the responsibility to pursue and settle claims of MMTC during pendency of the contract. MMTC shall have the right to terminate the agreement without notice in case CHA fails to work fully for the assignment as may be entrusted by MMTC and discharge its duty in satisfactory manner. MMTC's decision shall be final on this.
33. On termination of agreement either on completion of the work or in terms of para 31 above, CHA shall deliver to MMTC all or each of the consignment and all books or accounts and documents relating to MMTC, which are in their possession or control.
34. MMTC has right to inspect the goods under custody of CHA at any time and all relevant records/documents.
35. In case CHA fails to comply with any clause or terms and conditions of this agreement a suitable penalty shall be imposed depending upon the decision of MMTC without prejudice to the other thereof shall be settled amicably through negotiation, failing which the disputes or differences shall be referred to arbitration by a sole arbitrator to be nominated by Chairman and Managing Director of MMTC. The provisions of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 shall apply to such arbitration proceedings. The venue of arbitration shall be Mumbai.
36. CHA shall strictly abide by all the rules and regulations of the Government policy and local authorities.
37. CHA shall be liable for all costs, damages, demurrage and other such things in operation due to the negligence of CHA or underperformance of any service or any breach of terms thereof. The quantum of such damages will be determined at the sole discretion of MMTC.
38. MMTC can appoint and utilize the services of other CHA whenever it feels necessary or on arising of any circumstances without assigning any reasons thereof.
39. In case of failure on the part of CHA to get the required work done, MMTC shall get the same done from other agency at the market rates and CHA shall have to bear the difference in the market rate paid by MMTC and the contractual rate.

40. In case clearance of goods are delayed beyond 5 working days, penalty will be imposed on the CHA as follows :

Sl.No.	Delay Period	Penalty
1	06-10 days (both inclusive)	Rs.5000/- per B/E

3	16-20 days (both inclusive)	Rs.15,0000/- per B/E
4	More than 20 days	Rs.20,000/- per B/E

In case, clearance of goods is delayed by more than 20 days, MMTC will make alternative arrangement for clearance of goods from any other CHA and all losses/costs incurred due to delay will be solely to CHA's account in addition to the penalty mentioned at clause 3 above.

41. CHA must have registration number with Employees Provident Fund Authority and also required to have registration under the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition Act, 1970), and shall be responsible for filing regular monthly returns with PF Authorities and ESIC besides a declaration to the effect that labourers are covered under Insurance/Workmen Compensation Act, etc.
42. MMTC shall pay remuneration of services described above and performed by CHA at the contracted rates. If any additional service is required to be performed, the remuneration for the same will be paid at the rate as negotiated and fixed by mutual agreement.
43. CHA shall always keep MMTC fully indemnified against all costs, damages, demurrages and other such things in operation due to negligence of CHA or due to their non-performance / underperformance of any services and/or obligations, or any breach of any terms and contract. Notwithstanding, anything contained in the contract, if for any reason MMTC is disabled or prevented from performing any of its obligation under the contract it shall inform to CHA, who shall have no right to claim any payment whatsoever from MMTC either by way of price, compensation, damages or otherwise, in respect of the contract. CHA shall also keep MMTC fully indemnified for the conduct of its employees/agent.
44. CHA shall maintain/arrange to store the cargo in terms of insurance policy to be taken by MMTC.
45. Any dispute or difference in any matter relating to or arising out of the Agreement, if the same is not resolved amicably, will be settled at Mumbai by the Arbitration in accordance with the Rules of Arbitration of Indian Council of arbitration, Delhi, and the award made in pursuance thereof shall be final and binding on the parties. Indian laws will apply. The venue of the Arbitration will be Mumbai.

46. The Invitation of Bids, terms and conditions of Tender, Bid of the CHA and Letter of Acceptance issued by MMTC along with any amendment issued prior to signing of this agreement shall constitute the Contract between the CHA and MMTC.
47. This Agreement shall be valid for a period of two years from the date of issue of work order. However, the agreement can be extended by mutual consent of the parties.
48. If any portion of this Agreement or its application is construed to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, then the other portions of the Agreement or its application thereof shall not be affected thereby and shall be given full force and effect without regard to the invalid or unenforceable portions.
49. Any changes/amendments to this agreement shall be valid only when both the parties to said agreement mutually agree and sign the amendment.
50. In the event of any doubts to the interpretation of any of the clauses herein contained, the interpretation and clarification provided by MMTC shall prevail and shall be final and binding on the CHA.
